The Cruel Schoolmaster. An indignant mother wrote thus to the principal of an academy:

Dear Sir—My son writes me that he has to study too hard. He says he has to translate 50 hexameters of Latin a dictionary and find it is o-l-p. In TAOI day. I looked "hexameter" up in the dictionary and find it is a poetic verse of six feet. Now, that makes 300 feet, or 100 yards of poetry for my poor son to translate each day. I think about half a hexameter or six inches of this Latin is enough for a boy of his age. Yours truly

WELL KNOWN MERCER VETERAN IS BURIED

(Special to The Argus.)
Aledo, Ill., May 22.—J. Taylor Gilmore, a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of this city, passed away at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago at midnight Wednesday, May 19. Mr. Gilmore had been in poor health for some months and was taken to the hospital in Galesburg a short time ago, where a surgical operation was performed from which he failed to rally.

Mr. Gilmore was born in Millersburg June 22, 1845. His entire life, with the exception of his last three years residence in Aledo, was spent in the Millersburg community. He served through the Civil war and after returning home he was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca Green, who preceded him in death. Three children survive: Mrs. A. D. Braucht, Mrs. A. C. REAL PIONEER IS DEAD AT HAMPTON

Mrs. Ruey Buffum, 95 Years of Age Came to This Locality in the 30's.

FUNERAL TOMORROW at 2:30 P. M.

Recently Voted Chair by Old Settlers as the Oldest Resident Among Those Attending.

Mrs. Ruey Buffum, one of the oldest settlers, if not the very oldest in this county, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Whitehead at Hampton. She was 95 years of age and had lived in this community since the early 30's. The end came as the result of a general breakdown due to advanced age.

Mrs. Buffum's maiden name was Ruey Moore, her parents being among the earlier pioneers of Buffalo Prairie. She came here from the east when young. After her marriage to Hiram Buffum she lived for a time at Andalusia and later the family removed to the upper end of the county, living in or near Hampton most of the time since. The husband died a score of years ago and widow made her home for a number of years afterward in Rock Island.

Was Awarded Chair.
Mrs. Buffum was honored two years ago at the annual reunion of the Old Settlers' association by being awarded the chair given to the earliest pioneer present.

Surviving members of the family are two daughters, Mrs. Emily Whitehead and Mrs. Sara Jane Whitehead, living in Kansas. There is also an adopted son, Douglas, living near Aledo.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Hampton Methodist church and burial will take place beside the husband in the family lot in the Hampton cemetery.

Two of Them.
Miss Paul was one of the teachers at the mission Sunday school. One Sunday the subject of the lesson was "The Second Commandment," and Miss Paul began by asking little Adelbert Dugan the question:

"Now, Adelbert, have we any idols in this country?"

For a moment the boy hesitated and then replied:

"Yes, ma'am. Me dad's idle and me uncle too."—Household Journal.
